Include a Brainwarp puzzle in your publication and, while entertaining your readers, it can also reinforce your organisation's values and ethos. Brainwarp has over 20 years' experience of creating and supplying puzzles to the corporate publishing world so we understand the need to communicate with stakeholders in novel and challenging ways.

Guaranteed original puzzles bespoke. Brainwarp will tailor a puzzle for a particular event or promotion. Through subject specific words and clues, client messages can be reinforced in a unique way.

New and sector exclusive. The distribution of these puzzles is managed to guarantee that your puzzles will not be seen in similar sectors within strict time limits.

Stock. Puzzles which have been published elsewhere but mainly within the in-house sector, thus reducing any crossover of readership.

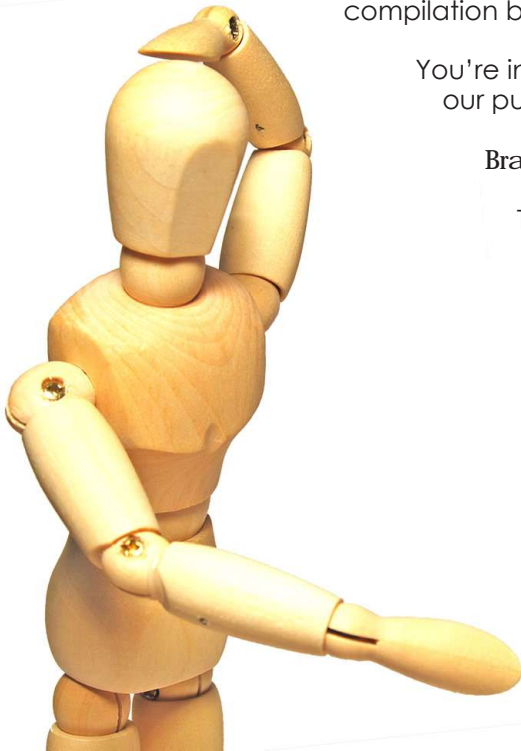

Bulk commissions. Brainwarp provides collections of puzzles for book publishers, TV programmes, brochures and internet sites. Because of our managed distribution policy, we have a large quantity of lightly used puzzles which can be used in puzzle compilation books or for syndication.
